

HTML Audio & Video Tags

<audio> – Used to play sound files directly in the browser.

Common formats: mp3, wav, ogg.

controls – Shows play, pause, volume controls.

autoplay – Starts playing audio automatically.

loop – Repeats audio continuously.

muted – Starts audio in muted state.

preload – Controls loading behavior (auto, metadata, none).

<source> – Used inside audio to provide multiple formats.

<video> – Used to play video files in the browser.

Common formats: mp4, webm, ogg.

width / height – Controls video size.

controls – Shows video controls.

autoplay – Starts video automatically (usually muted).

loop – Replays video continuously.

muted – Mutes video sound.

poster – Image shown before video starts.

preload – Controls video loading behavior.

Text inside audio or video tag appears if browser does not support it.

These tags work without JavaScript.